

All family events are sponsored by The Friends of the Covina Public Library and are inspired by books, learning and entertainment! All events are on a first-come, first served basis. Participants may begin lining up outside the Community Room, no earlier than one-half hour prior to the performance or event.

Location: Covina Public Library, Community Room (unless otherwise noted)